EN ElectronicNetwork AG relocates its headquarter to Bornheim-Hersel near Bonn, Germany

The EN ElectronicNetwork AG, EMS provider with production sites all over Germany, will relocate the headquarter to its site in Bornheim-Hersel, Germany.

After the sale of its company shares of the Limburg site at the end of 2009 and the with it associated spin-off from the EN ElectronicNetwork group, now the headquarter of the EN ElectronicNetwork AG will be moved to the group site in Bornheim-Hersel, near Bonn in Germany.
